

Fearless SOUL

Embodying new leadership, for a better world.

Why

Fearless SOUL

A better world, needs a better leader.

A leader, bold enough to take off the armour and let go of what no longer serves. A leader brave enough to become vulnerable, inspiring and compassionate. A leader wise enough, to connect with her / his inner truth and wisdom. A leader, fulfilled, accomplished and responsible enough, to take on the equality of leadership and acts in service of leaving a positive imprint on this planet. A leader radical enough to believe another world is possible. A leader with clarity. A leader with fearless SOUL.

Know. You are here for a reason and humbly and soulfully look forward to guiding you in becoming your fearless SOUL.

Let me tell you my story.

I worked hard. Very hard. Precisely, 20 years in the digital space. Creating digital products and services for companies around the world. My diligence and creative mindset paid off, when I was offered the role to lead the German business of an internationally renowned Digital Agency. I thought I had achieved all. But had I? Because, I wasn't happy, I was exhausted. I wasn't speaking my truth, I was actually out of balance. I had cultivated efficiency, to the detriment of presence. I had acquired the notion of winning and lost my sense for collaboration. I had acquired wealth and status, to the neglect of meaning and values.

Welcome to Fearless SOUL

From this emerged SOULWORX. And now Fearless SOUL. Because I know in order to deal creatively with rapid change, digitalisation, uncertainty, global interconnectivity, de-centralization, exponential technologies and greater demands for ethics and meaning in the world of work, we need a revolution. A revolution in our hearts and minds. A revolution that will shift and transform our inner and outer worlds. A revolution that will manifest a better world.

Welcome, to Fearless SOUL - a radical transformation for you to be a better leader, to better the world.

So. Do you feel called today, to mobilize your talents and express yourself. To make a bold difference. To create maximum impact in your (work) life. To evolve and lead yourself and your business purposefully? Through deceleration, deeper meaning, connection and decisive contribution?

Maybe start a consciousness business or nonprofit? Build a meditation school? Create an educational program for underprivileged kids? Shape a courageous culture in your organisation? Enroll in new teachings and pursue a new career with social impact?

Each one of us is unique. And all of us can do extraordinary things. With the Masterclasses and practices in Fearless SOUL, you'll train in the art of balancing 'Being and Doing' so that what you contribute and manifest comes from a place that is free from anxiety, aggression, and stress. You will learn to remain spacious, give your fullest, embrace synchronicities, and enjoy the process.

Whatever your motivation, welcome to Fearless SOUL. You are here, precisely for a reason.

What to expect.

Fearless SOUL is an inclusive, co-creating and precious 12-week LIVE Online Leadership Program, where I offer you a protected and competent frame for a radical transformative experience. In these 12 weeks you will learn of:

- ... who are you,
- ... what is really important to you,
- ... what your soul calling is,
- ... where your real power and your uniqueness lie,
- ... what you want to impact today and in future,
- ... how you can bring your mission into action
- ... and how you can endure staying on the path

in order for you to be and live who you really are, and become a harmonious, healthy and responsible leader, living in balance, clarity, impact and joy.

The next Fearless SOUL online program starts 5th November, 2019 and ends 10th February, 2020 with an in-person Celebration Day gathering, in Zippelhaus, Hamburg on 29th February, 2020 to round the experience off.

12 week Flow.

1-3: Stage 1 - INVENTORY

Your wake-up call. Become aware. Reflect on your life's journey and awaken what is actually needed. Understand what you have already discovered. Practice gratitude. Practice presence. Understand, what you are missing and what you wish to gain in this present moment.

4-6: Stage 2 - INDIVIDUATION

Acknowledge your Being in the larger scheme. Study your limited acquired mind. The beliefs, patterns and fears you carry. Become radical. Breakthrough your conditioning. Take back your abundance and unbound potential. Connect to your deeper levels of intelligence and surface your soul's calling.

7-9: Stage 3 - INTERPRETATION

Recode your conscious mind. Use the power of visioning and intention to learn your truth. Become you. Be committed to take on full responsibility to self realise and consciously serve something larger than yourself.

10-12: Stage 4 - IMPLEMENTATION

Take action! Understand your supporters. Do less and achieve more. Brave yourself to being and living who you truly are. Be in joy. Be a better leader. Be your Fearless SOUL.

Tim Herbig, Solopreneur

It really did me good to take the time to think about what makes me unique and what I'm really good at. Simply with this sharpened look, my antennas are completely different in my further search for meaning.

Lavinia Rosen
Employed executive professional

My biggest learning from Fearless SOUL was my ability to face my fears and allow myself to go even deeper in detecting and then breaking through my limiting beliefs. Ususally, I'm more of an in-the-head thinker.
